

In a recent press statement Commissioner Abernathy wrote that the June 2 deadline need not be extended because the public had already commented sufficiently. While I disagree, if we accept her argument as fact than I hope she and other commissioners that favor relaxing media consolidation rules will adhere to the majority wishes of those 18,000 comments as well as the attendees of public and unofficial hearings who were opposed to such deregulation.